A Special Place to Stay

Private, exclusive mobile camping in its purest form is widely recognised as providing the most authentic of Safari experiences. Unlike staying in hotels and lodges, it enables your clients to blend in with and become part of the environment they wish to experience.

And once they depart there is little, if any evidence of their visit aside from their cherished memories and the pictures which they take away with them to enjoy for many years to come. The management and staff of 'Intimate Places' therefore look forward to welcoming them on a safari of a lifetime.
